Senior_Petitions_Attorney Patricia Faison-Ball refuses to answer my Letter from 23.Nov.2004

Dear Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, on 21.Oct.2004 I wrote a petition to revive an unavoidable abandoned patent application (I wasn't able to pay the issue_fee, because I'm living from social welfare – but in October'04 I won a patent, which made me able to pay it, and I transferred 665$ issue fee plus 55$ petition fee).

With annexes of my letters from 07.Jan.2004 and 27.Jan.2004 and 21.Oct.2004 I proved my financial situation.

With letter from 17.Nov.2004 Senior_Petitions_Attorney Patricia Faison-Ball answered, that my petition would lack paying the issue_fee and the petition_fee and that I could renew a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b).

On 23.Nov.2004 I received her letter and tried to call her several times, but every time I tried, there was only a mailbox – and I spoke to her tape, that I had transferred the money and that she jumbled the petition fees under Title 37 C.F.R. § 1.137 (a) and (b).

The same day, I sent a letter where I proved by copy of the used filled money_transfer_form and the abstract_of_my_account from 15.Oct.2004, that I transferred the money (720$) to the USPTO and requested her to check it by the data of the filled form, because the Umlaut in my surname could cause an assignation problem.

For details see my letter from 23.Nov.2004.

I waited for an answer according to my message on her tape, because her mailbox sais, that she'll call "as soon as possible", and according to my letter from 23.Nov.2004.

After I waited 1½ months, on 09.01.2005 I sent a request to extend time to one month after she answered my letter from 23.Nov.2004, because on her letter from 17.Nov.2004 she set a respite to 2 months.

On 17.Jan.2005 I tried about 5 times to reach her on the phone, but every time I called 001-571-272-3212, her mailbox said, that she'd call "as soon as possible", and I spoke to her tape every time, begging, either to call back or to answer my letter from 23.Nov.2004.

Nothing happens:

Senior_Petitions_Attorney Patricia Faison-Ball insisently refuses to answer my letter and my phone calls since 2 months, though she herself set a 2-months-respite in her letter from 17.Nov.2004.

Please assign another Petitions_Attorney to my case, who doesn't refuse to answer.

With friendly greetings
